4. Name of data file

Data file for Verkostomoodle's user and data registry.

5. Purpose of processing of personal data

Personal data are processed for the purpose of organising and providing the controller's Verkostomoodle's administration functions and services. Additionally, personal data is processed for the purpose of organising and completing studies.

Data stored in accordance with the purpose of the data file may also be used for evaluating and developing teaching and learning.

The purposes of use of the data file entity related to Verkostomoodle comprise, among others:

- Administration of user registry and user data
- Administration of database of Verkostomoodle
- Administration of workspaces, enrolments and registrations in Verkostomoodle

The controller processes the data in house, as well as subcontracting parties to process the data on the controller's behalf.

6. Lawfulness of processing of personal data

The lawfulness of processing personal data is based on the following principles of the EU General Data Protection Regulation:

- a) Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject (GDPR Art. 6 (1)c);
- b) Processing is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests pursued by the controller or by a third party (GDPR Art. 6 (1)f);
- c) The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data for one or more specific purposes (GDPR Art. 6 (1)a), or, in the case of special categories of personal data, the data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of those personal data for one or more specified purposes, except where Union or Member State law provide that the prohibition referred to in the regulation may not be lifted by the data subject (GDPR Art. 9 (2)a);
- d) Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject (GDPR Art. 9(2)g);
- e) Processing is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or whenever courts are acting in their judicial capacity (GDPR Art. 9(2)f);

The aforementioned legitimate interests of the controller are based on a meaningful and appropriate relationship between the data subject and the controller, which arises when the data subject is an applicant or student of the controller, as long as the processing is done for purposes which the data subject can reasonably be assumed to have expected at the time of, and in conjunction with, the data being collected.

8. Regular data sources and personal data generated as part of controller's operations

Personal data are primarily collected from the data subjects themselves during registration process to Verkostomoodle. The controller collects personal data related to the purpose of use of the data file from user access federation HAKA databases.

9. Period of storage of personal data

The personal data in the data file are only stored for as long as and to the extent that each category of data is needed, proportionate to the purpose of processing of the personal data. Additionally, the duration of storage of personal data complies with possible statutory requirements. In principle the personal data will be stored in the database 180 days from the last login of the user.

10. Regular disclosures of personal data

As the controller of the data file, Haaga-Helia does not transfer personal data into other data files.

11. Transfers and disclosures of data to outside of the EU or ETA

Data from the data file are not habitually transferred to outside the EU or ETA, nor processed outside the EU or ETA, unless this is necessary for the technical implementation of the processing (for example if the technical maintenance of systems is located outside the EU or ETA), or in order to manage international functions related to the purpose of use of the data file.

In transferring personal data, the controller complies with the standard contractual clauses approved by the European Commission in relation to the transfer of personal data to third-party countries, or alternatively implements other appropriate safeguards, or alternatively ensures that the third-party country can guarantee a sufficient level of data protection.

12. Data security principles

Access to databases and systems and use of the data file are only available to such employees of the controller or of subcontractors working on the controller's behalf, whose work duties entitle them to handle the data contained in the data file. Every user of the data file has an individual username and password for the systems.

Materials containing personal data are stored in locked facilities that may only be accessed by specifically appointed persons whose work duties entitle them to do so.

The database containing personal data is stored on a server which is placed in a locked facility that may only be accessed by specifically appointed persons whose work duties entitle them to do so. The server is protected by an appropriate firewall and technical security systems.

13. Rights of the data subject

The data subject has the following rights in accordance with the EU General Data Protection Regulation:

1. The right to obtain from the controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning him or her are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information:
  - i. the purposes of the processing;
  - ii. the categories of personal data concerned;
  - iii. the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
